BUDGET HONORS GOODWIN

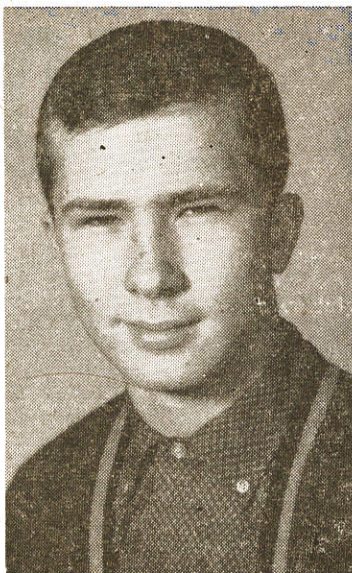

In this issue of the BUDGET we wish to express our "thanks" to our friend William Goodwin. Through his years at GHS as our dean of boys, he has given of himself to the school. His understanding and warm personality have made him a lasting friend to student and teacher alike. Surely no person has given more to education than our own Mr. Goodwin. As we look to the past to say "thanks," we also look forward to the future years, as Mr. Goodwin plays his important role in the lives of young people.

PUBLICATION EDITORS NAMED

Mike Lawrence

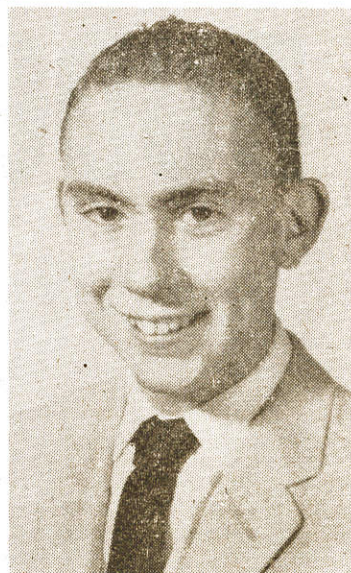

David Moberg

Lucia Trevino

Linda Ballou

Ross Stribling

Mike Lawrence will head the 1959-60 student newspaper, the BUDGET, according to the announcement made today by Mr. Wayne McCormick, advisor to student publications. Lawrence has been active in student journalism in both junior and senior high school. During this school year he has been sports editor, penning the popular Scoop's Scoreboard. As editor of the BUDGET, Mike will also head the student publications board. The board will be comprised of other editors of both the BUDGET and the REFLECTOR. This year's editor is Mike Wald.

Heading the news department will be David Moberg, acting as news editor. Dave, a sophomore this year, has been active writing news copy this year. Lucia Trevino, an active feature writer during the past two years, is to be the new assistant BUDGET editor.

Feature editor for the BUDGET next year will be Linda Ballou. Linda has been very active in publications affairs and has previously been a feature writer for the newspaper. Ross Stribling, a sports writer the last two years, will head the sports staff. Pete Gunther will be advertising manager. He has been active with publications this year.

The staff of the REFLECTOR for next year will be named in the next issue of the BUDGET.

Pete Gunther

Another excellent March of Dimes assembly was given. Now is the time for all good students to come to the aid of the cause. THIS MEANS YOU!

Tonight is the annual Publications Banquet to be held in the Hotel Custer ballroom. We hope those of you who have worked and helped to put out the BUDGET and REFLECTOR and Refractave will be in attendance. Last Friday a memorable band assembly was given. Appreciat-

A faculty meeting was held a week ago today in the library to the gladness of all . . .

ATTENTION. Fearless Peerless Prediction! Bulletin! Remember last year's championship intramural basketball game which the Junior won after several overtimes over the Seniors. We regret to inform you that the Juniors will not win this year due to the fact that last year's Juniors are now this year's Seniors.

Reflector Under Way With '58 Book

It's 1959 and the '59 copy of the REFLECTOR is well under way. The biggest problem of this project is to get pictures into an identified order. Next they are sent to the engraver and when they return from there the process of identification starts over again before they can be sent to the printer. This job is done by the Photography Editor, Martha Lucas.

The art work for this year is being done by Dave Dickerson and from the looks of things it is very outstanding.

Bill Hollis is doing his part to make this year's REFLECTOR the best by getting as many merchants to participate with us and advertise in our newspaper and REFLECTOR.

The Editor for this year is Frances Dahlberg, who is doing a splendid job.

Other people working on the staff are Judy Hawkinson, copy editor; Jerry Herrin and Bill Holmes.

GHS Support March Of Dimes Drive

Opening into a wider range field composed of many branches, the March of Dimes started another campaign.

Not only are they now concerned with patients having polio, but are realing in the field of arthritis, birth defects, research in the field of virus diseases and financial aid to those having rheumatoid arthritis, under the age of 18. This is being done in hopes that some day we will no longer be troubled with the everyday cold.

Our high school campaign, which started Tuesday, will last for one week. The money which is donated will be used in one of these fields aiding the disabled.

Salk vaccine shots are being given to anyone under the age of 40. The National Foundation of March of Dimes is trying to impress upon everyone how important these shots are.

Future Nurses Plan After Game Dance

One of Galesburg Senior High School's many organizations is the Future Nurses Association with Diane Anderson as president and Mrs. Findahl, the school nurse, as sponsor. Elinor Sandborg is treasurer and Sandie Cameron, secretary.

Other members of the club are: Janet Dickerson, Sharon DeWitt, Betty Ray, Dathy Obermiller, Martha Lucas, Dixie Hoots, Mary Brock, Sandra Sholl, Jean Madderon, Helen Holmes, Judy Zielke, Sandy Silvey, Rosie Linder, Mary Ann Eck, Ann Dickson, Betty Campbell (Sr.), Ruth Ann Burke, Margaret Enlow, Linda Morris, Sharon Levine, Carole Thomas, Kay Thorson, Mary Keith Peterson, Carole Eddy, Carole Nelson, Lyda Crawford, Dorothy Crawford, Janet Terpening, Mary Jo

Norman, Yvonne Eager, Karen J. Smith, Kathy Sults, and Mary Kay Mathers.

The Future Nurses Club, meeting every other week, usually on Wednesday night, have so far this year sponsored a needy family at Christmas and helped to sell Stanley products to raise money for the club. They have also held a bake sale, in the main hall, at noon at school.

January 24, the club is planning an after-game dance in the girls' gym. The Silver Chords have been asked to play and refreshments will be served. Admission to the dance will be 25 cents per person and extra for refreshments. The proceeds of this dance will go towards Nursing Scholarships for our school. They hope to have a fine turnout.

Choir Preparing Two Operettas

The GHS A Capella Choir has started work on its annual operetta. However, this year instead of the usual one operetta, the choir is giving two.

This year's shows are going to be "The Lowland Sea" by Alec Wilder and "Brooklyn Baseball Cantata" by George Kleinsinger.

"The Lowland Sea" tells the story of a young sailor, Johnny Dee, who leaves his girl friend, Dorie, to sail beyond the Lowland Sea. While he's away, Johnny Dee becomes ill and so leaves the ship until he can recover. Shortly after he leaves the ship, it is sunk and all hands are killed. When word of this disaster reaches Dorie, she, thinking Johnny Dee dead, marries a local Romeo. Meanwhile, Johnny has managed to get back to Scarlettown where he finds Dorie married and taking care of a family.

The plot of the story itself is rather ordinary. However, the beauty of the production lies in the outstanding music which it contains. Many members of the choir feel that, musically, "The Lowland Sea" may be one of the better operettas which the choir has staged.

The other musical, "Brooklyn Baseball Cantata," is a humorous satire of the Brooklyn Dodgers' baseball team. The entire story is told by the local radio announcer. He tells of the day of the big game between the Dodgers and the New York Yankees. The game moves on until it's the last half of the ninth with the Dodgers at bat, trailing by three runs. With two men out, a pinch hitter steps to the plate and clouts a grand slam home run. Not only does this win the ball game but the World Series as well.

However, when the announcer regains his senses he admits that it's all just a dream, but he still clings to the idea that "Brooklyn's day will come."

So far only parts of the casts have been chosen. In "The Lowland Sea" the part of Dorie will be sung by Sylvia Sanford, while Owen Muelder will portray Johnny Dee. The part of Dorie's husband will be taken by Jerry Johnson.

The announcer in the "Brooklyn Baseball Cantata" will be Mike Wald.

Debators Finish Second In Meet

Galesburg High School's varsity debate squad took second place at the Northwest Conference Debate Tournament last Saturday in Moline.

Finishing with a 6 won, 2 lost record, they just barely missed capturing the championship trophy which went to Kewanee. The record of the winners was 7-1. Finishing third, fourth, and fifth respectively, were Moline, East Moline and Rock Island.

Galesburg's negative team of Mike Vitale and Leonard Shane went undefeated for the day, winning all four of their rounds. This made their season's record 11 wins and 5 losses. The affirmative team of Bill Holmes and Mike Wald saw their 12 round winning streak broken as they posted a 2-2 record. As a result, their season's record now stands at 14 wins as opposed to 2 losses. The entire team now has a very commendable 25-7 season's record.

They will be quite busy in the next few weeks as they attempt to improve upon this mark. Next Saturday, the team travels to East Peoria to participate in a cross examination debate tournament. The following week is the Sterling Invitational Tourney which is followed by the Augustana two-day tournament.

At all of these tournaments the topic which has been used all year will again be used. That topic is stated: Resolved, the U. S. should adopt the essential features of the British System of Education.

At the annual Future Teachers of America Christmas party the members decided to give fifteen dollars to the Mentally Retarded school.

The next doings of the organization are already being planned. A bake sale will be held in February, and a potluck will be held in Abingdon on April 7. Besides the Galesburg and Abingdon chapters, Monmouth will also be represented. The last fete being planned is a picnic which is to be held some time in May.

Students Enjoy 'Moon Mist'

Moon Mist was the theme for the 1959 Winter Formal. The dance was held in Steele Gym from 8:00 to 11:00 p. m., Saturday, January 9. The music was presented by Harold Buettner and his orchestra. Blue and white were the colors used for the false ceiling and the streamers along the sides. The programs were also blue and white. Coke and orange pop were served as refreshments. Master of ceremonies for the intermission was Carol Thomas. Entertainment during intermission was supplied by Bob Stauffer, who played "Trumpeter's Lullaby" accompanied by Jerry Johnson, and Vaughn Callison.

Ill. Scholarship Semi-Finalist Are Announced

Twenty-one Galesburg High School students were among the 3,700 semi-finalists of the Illinois State Scholarships.

The students applied for these scholarships by completing a 3-hour test, November 22, 1958. Of the 3,700 semi-finalists, about 2,200 will be named as winners. Of this number, about 1500 will receive grants up to $600 for the first year in college and 700 will be honorary winners. Last year, the first year of the scholarship program, 2,160 Illinois students received scholarships.

These scholarships may be applied to any Illinois college or university to which the applicant has been accepted.

The list of finalists will be published sometime in March.

A BUILDER OF MEN

It is good now and then to look around our school and take a mental inventory of where we are going and where we have been . . . and at the same time, take a look at the people who guide our future.

Young people and education in Galesburg are lucky to have a man like William H. Goodwin as a guiding hand in our school system. Through the years he has always strived to ever improve our school. As dean of boys, Mr. Goodwin has solved thousands of problems through guidance and kind understanding.

This issue of the BUDGET honors Mr. Goodwin for years of hard work and understanding.

INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

346 Second Ave. S.W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa
OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Wayne McCormick

Galesburg Senior High School

Galesburg, Illinois

My dear Mr. McCormick:

It is a most pleasant opportunity for me to write this letter in behalf of my good friend, Mr. William Goodwin. As you well know, it was my pleasure to be associated with Mr. Goodwin for a period of five and one-half years. I believe I know Mr. Goodwin very well and, thus, can speak in his behalf.

Certainly Bill Goodwin is one of the real educators in the Galesburg community. He is in education as his profession because of his sincere belief that education is the best means of preserving the American way of life and that young people are the hope of the world in the years to come. He is certainly completely dedicated to the belief that the young people in America are the hope of the future, and he is making his contribution as a member of the teaching profession.

Bill Goodwin stands for all that is best in the profession today. His own personal and family life are above reproach, and his home is filled with love and respect among the members of the family. Certainly one of the measures of a man's real worth is in the children of the household of which he is the head. Certainly Bill has every reason to be proud of this family and the wonderful children that he and Mrs. Goodwin have had. Each one of the mis a tribute to a wonderful father and mother.

I wish I were present at the banquet honoring Mr. Goodwin. However, since I cannot be there, I take this very inadequate means of extending to you my sincere greetings and congratulations for choosing Mr. William Goodwin for a most deserved recognition and honor.

Most cordially yours,

ARNOLD W. SALISBURY,
Superintendent.

Hi, everybody! Here's your roving reporter back to work again. Since the calendar has turned over a new leaf, I thought I'd see how many people around GHS are turning over new leaves, so I asked them this question: "What's your New Year's resolution?" It seems like a lot of people around here think they must be pretty perfect because I was met with a lot of "I don't know or I haven't got any" answers. Just the same I did manage to come up with a few honest people with a variety of answers to my question, so here goes.

Rosie Beckham—I resolve to learn to spell "Menominee!"

Joann Moberg—I resolve to get in earlier at night.

Mike Leighton—I resolve to stay sober until next New Year's Eve.

Steve Cox—I resolve to quit throwing Literature books at Linda Ballou.

Anne Pico—I don't resolve.

Fred Foster—I did resolve, but I've broken all my resolutions already.

Darlene Schisler—I resolve to grow 6 inches.

Jan Read—Shall I tell you my 53rd resolution?

Ann Weaver—I'm going to quit putting off starting my diet and just give up the whole idea.

Sharon Shurtz—I resolve to raise my bowling score higher than 21. (Let's say to 22, maybe.)

Onalee Gensini—I resolve to quit saying witty things in English.

David Weaver—I resolve not to spend any more money on expensive things like dances.

Tom Williams—I resolve not to drink any more cokes or Pepsi's.

Jerry Weaver—I resolve not to make any resolutions.

Jon Malstrom—I've got a resolution, but you'd better not print it.

Mike Lawrence—I resolve to trade in my 1908 Underwood for a 1920 model.

Becky Martin—I resolve to turn Jim's car off the wrong way.

Julie Anderson—I resolve not to fight any more with a certain person.

Karen Johnson—I resolve to claim a new name.

Donna Allen—I resolve to learn to park—the car.

Jim Swanson—I don't believe in New Year's resolutions.

Bob Tomlin—I resolve to quit playing cards for money.

Judy Zielke—I resolve not to talk any more at Tri Hi Y.

Judy Buck—I resolve to be in California on New Year's Eve next year.

Dale Larson—"What's my New Year's resolution?" (sneaky grin) "No!"

Ann Black—I resolve to find out what Dale's resolution is.

Yvonne Eager—I resolve never to baby sit again on New Year's Eve.

Karen J. Smith—I resolve to join the Lombard Band before this summer.

Dick McGee—I resolve to change my brand of after-shave lotion so a certain person can't tell who I am in the dark.

Gale Gillenwater—What's my resolution? Well, I don't have one right now, but I can sure make one up.

Diane Gustafson—I resolve to stop going into Linstrom's during lunch hour.

Nettie Dorris—I resolve to get my homework done before 11:30 each night.

Rosie Linder—I resolve to quit falling down the steps on the way to gym and dropping all my books.

Cheryl Snelling—I resolve to keep the resolutions I made last year and broke.

Resolved . . .

How do you start the New Year out? After having such a long vacation from school it seems to be hard to get back into the swing of things. I think in the opinion of most of the students here at Galesburg High is that they are all glad to be back at school.

Do you start out before the New Year comes in by making all kinds of resolutions that you never intend to keep in the first place? If so you are just like hundreds of other people who do the same thing, year after year. People will make all kinds of promises and resolutions to themselves about what they are going to do in the New Year. Probably most of them break them before New Year's Day is over or soon after.

Some people truly try to live up to their resolutions and to turn over a new leaf. Most people who break their New Year's resolutions always try to think of some good reason why they had to break them. I don't think that other people really care if someone keeps their resolutions or not. One would think that people might try, but if it is something that they have to work for they give it up in a big hurry. People should really try, and try hard, to make the New Year a better one.

Whenever the New Year comes around it should be a time when we try to look at ourselves as other people see us in every day life. From what we find out by looking at ourselves we should try to build our resolutions and promises around our findings. We should try to think of every good way that we can improve ourselves. I think that this is the best way to improve. I hope that all of us had a nice vacation from school and that we have made a few resolutions that we are going to try to keep.

Senior Alley

You all know Barb Harpman, that ambitious Senior involved in such activities as GSL, Pep Club, Art Club, Student Council, SAA, Tri-Hi-Y, FTA, and cheerleading; and as you can see, she is kept quite busy. Her interests are eating, especially Swiss steak and French fries. Her other interests include Bradley basketball games and, of course, a certain college Freshman, Ted Bruington. She is also interested in acrobatics, and as she has proved many times, is quite good at it.

Barb's favorite sports include basketball and swimming. Her best liked school period is Miss Denny's history class, fourth period. It seems she has one pet peeve, and this is someone coming up to her in the hall and asking: "Say, when did you eat last?"

Pat Stevens is also quite well known and her interests are obvious, a Stanford Freshman and writing letters. She is president of Stage Call, and an active member of Thespians and GSL.

Of course her favorite sport is also basketball. Guess what her favorite school period is . . . lunch hour. I wonder why? It seems Pat has several pet peeves and these include homework, people who pop paper bags in 105 at noon, people who slam your locker shut in your face (who would do that?) and extreme forms of Rock and Roll music.

Both Barb and Pat think their Senior year is simply great!

Well, hello one and all! I welcome you all back to the good ol' halls of GHS. It's been pretty lonely around here with all of you "vacationing it up." But I see most of you are back and in good health. So now I will put you all in the hospital with split sides. For the jokes I have collected for you are a real riot.

The Story Of The Frieze

In this issue of the BUDGET we are presenting the first in a series of two feature stories about the frieze in the auditorium. This week we tell of the triumphal entry of Alexander into Babylon.

Next week we will present a modern day account of the frieze as to its worth. The BUDGET is urging that the historic frieze be placed in the new high school.

The frieze which decorates the balcony in the High School Auditorium was presented to the Galesburg High School by the Dramatic Club in the year 1911. It is a copy of the frieze executed in marble by the famous Danish sculptor Bertel Thorwaldsen. The commission for this work of art was given him in 1812 by the Roman government and was to be made in honor of the proposed visit of Napoleon to Rome. It was first displayed in one of the parlors of the Palace of Quirinal, Rome; but was later placed permanently in the Villa Carlotta on Lake Como. It attracted so much attention that Thorwaldsen was ordered by the Danish government to make a copy of it for the Royal Palace of Denmark.

He chose as his subject for this commission the Triumphal Entry of Alexander the Great into Babylon. Beginning at the extreme left, as you face the frieze, one sees first the palm, the symbol of peace and victory. It overshadows the market place, with a camel and bales of goods. A caravan is supposed to be passing at a distance, which those in the market place are watching. By the river-bank is a fisherman, quietly casting his line. The whole is indicative of peace. But a merchant hears of the approach of the victorious army of Alexander and flees across the river with his merchandise, in the endeavor to save it from falling into the hands of the conqueror. The next panel shows the Genius of the River Euphrates, the flowing urn denoting the inexhaustible flow of the water, the oar, the navigability of the river, and the ear of wheat the fertility of the region through which it flowed.

The inhabitants now endeavor to save their possessions. A shepherd boy drives the flocks from the fields, while the owner and his family stand anxiously by. Through the gate of the city is passing a procession of people, who go to meet the conquering Alexander with the hope of propitiating him. Of this procession, the last to leave the gate is a group of wise men and astrologers, who with their astronomical instruments go to meet the conqueror and to predict for him a prosperous future. These wise men are preceded by wild animals on leashes and a group of Arabian horses, all of which are designed as gifts to the conqueror. These gifts are in turn preceded by musicians, and the city treasurer erects an altar of incense, while maidens strew garlands in the way.

Mazaeus, the conquered Babylonian general, goes forward to meet his conqueror, with his five children, supplicating for mercy. The procession of Babylonians who have come out of the city is led by the Genius of Peace bearing an olive branch. They now meet the conqueror Alexander and his cohorts.

Alexander himself leads the van in his chariot, driven by the Genius of Victory. He is followed by his armor bearers, and they in turn by an extensive cavalcade. Following this comes an elephant loaded with booty, beside which walks a captive Persian chief, guarded by a Greek warrior. A final horseman concludes the procession, while at the extremity of the frieze is seen Thorwaldsen, the artist, beneath a palm tree, witnessing the procession which he is to depict.

WILLIAM H. GOODWIN —

Mr. William Goodwin's professional attitude toward the field of education has impressed those who have worked with him. I have been associated with him in the Galesburg school system for many years. I always have found him cooperative and a most conscientious worker.

His advisory abilities and his qualities of leadership with the students has made him a valuable asset to the Galesburg school system.

CHARLES J. BEDNAR,

Director of Athletics.

A true friend of education and youth — Mr. William Goodwin is loved and respected by the students of today and yesterday who have come to know him. Mr. Goodwin is a firm believer in Democracy with a capital "D", as reflected by his countless hours guiding the Student Council and various other activities.

The cause of student government has always played a vital role in the life of Mr. Goodwin—and he has always been a friend to the student through trying times.

As the president of our Student Council, it gives me great pleasure in extending our congratulations to Mr. Goodwin on the fine job he has done.

Mike Vitale.

Bev Wycoff thinks the trouble with a diet is that you get fed up of not being fed.

There are two things I can't stand about you—your face.

LaVerne Landon: "I like your dress."

Ruth Ann: "Oh it's just something I threw on."

LaVerne: "Wow, you almost missed."

Asked if his conscience ever told him what to do, the boy replied, "Yes and then I told IT what to do."

Carol Spires: "Mashed potatoes are to give everybody enough."

Helen Holmes: "Laps are so you won't get crumbs on the floor."

Ann Black says: "Yeah, a hold is to dig."

Well, I hope you have enjoyed these chirpy little jokes I have gathered for your enjoyment. And I'll see you all again when you have recovered from your split sides, then I'll split your other side !!!

DOWNNEY AND CO. HOST GHS

Duel Friday; East Moline Here Saturday

This weekend the Galesburg Silver Streaks face two of their toughest opponents of the regular season. The Streaks travel to Canton on Friday, January 23, and play East Moline Saturday on the home court. Both teams have been ranked in the press polls at one time or another this year.

Canton "Little Giants" have five men returning from last year's squad. Leading the pack is Dave Downey, 6' 4" All-State center of 1957-1958. Last year, Galesburg fans did not see Downey in action when Canton was here due to an injury. However, the Little Giants put up a good battle, losing by a 70-59 score. Besides the big man, Downey, there are several other fine players returning. Jim Standard put in a fine game against the Streaks last year and has been a high scorer this year. Dick Wright is a fine playmaker returning in the guard position. John Nelson also has been a good scorer and defensive player.

Coach Charles Crosby has worked his team in both zone and man-to-man defense and therefore could use either one. Last year he took his team as far as the sectional where they were defeated.

This game could be real tough since Canton is on their home floor and looking for a chance to knock Galesburg out of the high ratings that they have received.

East Moline, coached by Ernie Kavisto, will be at Steele Gym Saturday. Four of the starting five are lettermen who have paced the Panthers to an 11-1 record at this writing. Frank Loll is the top scorer with an average of nearly 20 points a game. Gary Hobbs is another top scorer for the Panthers. Ronnie Ostrum, Bob Pyevich and Dick Lange are the other starters. All three are very good and saw action in last year's Streak-Panther games. The last contest saw the Panther set a new scoring record against Galesburg, winning 90-79.

East Moline has worked a zone quite often and may use it against the Streaks. They are a fast team with superb rebounding. There has been a strong rivalry between the Panthers and Streaks so this should add to the development of a real good battle.

The winners in the intramural Co-Rec Bowling League was team number 3. Members of this team are Julie Hawkinson, Judy Heady, Ben Wollems, Ron Armstrong, Jerry Shafer, Russ Loderquist and Eugene Unger. In the Boys' Bowling League the team on top with 13 wins and 2 losses is team number 4, whose members are Ed Crowell, Lee Dickson, Tim Tanner and Bill Tracy. The top 5 boys' bowlers with 10 or more games are Phil Shragel whose average is 146, Rog Schuarm, 142, Bill White 142, Jerry Shafer 137 and Dick Hogan 136.

In the intramural basketball, the top senior team is team number 5. In the Junior League it is team 3. In the Sophomore League team 7 is on top.

The coming activity will be a free throw tourney for each class in early March. Then during February and March there will be a Swim Meet for each class. During March water polo teams will be chosen.

Mr. Art Fish stated that there will be free swim for boys every Monday and Thursday nights from 3:45 to 4:45.

The Eastern all-stars routed the Western all-stars, 28-21, in the annual pro-bowl game played at Los Angeles. The East have previously been beaten in this all-star contest five consecutive times.

Streak Grapplers Bury Canton, 41-9

The Silver Streak matmen scored a very impressive 41-9 landslide victory over the Canton Little Giants, Thursday, January 8, at Steele Gym.

Canton was able to register only one individual victory, that being a pin by DeWulf over Galesburg's 95-pounder, Don Gillette. The Giants other four points were attributed to two draws, one in the 112-pound division between Baughman of Canton and Jimmy Johnson, and the other in the 154-pound set as Canton's Meacham gained a draw with Mike Leighton.

The crowd of spectators crammed into the west section of the bleachers saw a total of 5 pins amassed by Galesburg, topped by a 23-second pin of his opponent by burly LaVerne Landon. LaVerne gained command over Canton's White with a bone-crushing bear hug and literally mashed his shoulders into the mat. Pins were also gained by Bobby Hamilton, 120 pounds, in one minute, 35 seconds of the second fall; Dick Landon, 133 pounds, in 12 seconds of the second fall; Mike Reathaford, 145 pounds, in one minute, 58 seconds of the second two-minute period; and Fred Durbin, heavy-weight, in one minute, 25 seconds of the initial fall. The Galesburgians in the four weight divisions remaining all went the three falls and scored point victories over their foes. These fellows are: Bruce Hough, 103 pounds, over Bawton, 5-4; Bob Mills, 127 pounds, over Dawson, 4-2; Kenny Carlson, 138 pounds, over Pruden, 4-2; and Larry Murdock, 175 pounds, over Gist, 5-1.

Larry Murdock deserves a bit of praise, along with the grapplers who pinned their men, for his fine job against a heavier opponent. Larry wrestles in the 175-pound class although his weight is nearer 160 pounds.

John Tidwell, top performer for the state championship Herrin Tigers two years ago, is now a regular on the Michigan Wolverine varsity squad. John, now a sophomore, has drawn many words of praise from Big Ten observers.

Two Week-End Contests On Tap For Ponies

Coach Don Houser's Ponies may find the going a little rough as they meet the sophomore representatives from Canton and East Moline this week-end. On Friday night, they visit Canton, before returning to the friendly confines of Steele Gym on Saturday night. Both games will be featured as preludes to the varsity affairs.

Last year, the Ponies, ultimate Illini Conference champs, broke even with both of these foes. They notched victories at home against these two quintets, but failed on the road. The Panthers, earlier this year, edged the East Peoria sophomores by eight points. This was a couple of markers more than the Ponies could overcome the Red Raiders by.

JV'S Squeeze By Farmington, 43-41

The Galesburg JV's added three more victories to their column by romping over Peoria Manual JV 52-33, and then beating Rich Township in a game decided in the last few minutes. On Monday, January 5th, the strong JV team nipped a good Farmington Farmers Junior Varsity, 43-41.

After trailing Farmington the first quarter 10-9, the JV's outscored the Farmers 9-4 to take a 18-14 halftime lead. In the third quarter boasted a 31-26 lead. The fourth period was packed with plenty of action, as the JV's fought off a determined Farmington Club to come out on top of a 43-41 decision.

Lincoln Nixon paced the JV's in scoring with 12 points. Jim Arnold dealt 7 points, while Fred Foster cleared the boards to help out with the JV victory. Chlatten led the Farmers scoring with 9 points.

All five regulars on the 1955-56 Galesburg High School squad are first-string men at their respective colleges. Mike Owens is currently starring at a guard post for Bradley; Bill Graning is pacing Knox College to an excellent season; Ray Young is appearing in a starting role for Parsons College; Jerry Odell is a starter for Illinois Normal; and Russ Lind is in the top "five" at the University of Colorado.

Coach Houser rates East Moline along with Richwoods as the top threats standing in the way of a repeat performance for the local sophs this season. East Moline and Canton both have had excellent hardwood crews in recent years, while the Ponies have also enjoyed great success.

Larry Hendricks and Lincoln Nixon are expected to draw the starting assignments at the forward slots, with Bob Coe beginning in the center position. Occupying the guard spots for the Ponies are Gary Bruington and Pete Boynton. The Sophomore's attack features excellent height in the front line, with Hendricks, Nixon and Coe measuring 6-1, 6-3, and 6-4½, respectively. Bruington and Boynton have proven to be able defensive and offensive performers, with the latter playing a major role in the scoring.

With such capable performers as Phil Ulm, Lindell Goodman, Mike Feldman and Dave Dunham sitting on the bench, Houser should face no problems as far as reserve strength goes.

Following these two tussles, the sophomores face Rock Island and Pekin January 30 and 31.

The UPI poll is the poll where the coaches throughout the state vote for the top teams, while the AP poll is the poll where the sportswriters elect the top quintets.

Fired-Up Boilers Succumb To Thielmen

The Galesburg Silver Streaks defeated the Kewanee Boilermakers 68-53 last Saturday night at Steele Gym. This extended the winning streak to nine straight for the state's "number one team."

The game featured a real battle for scoring honors between Dave Cox, "Bumpy" Nixon, and Ralph Cannon. Ralph Cannon came off the bench to dazzle the crowd with 16 points and fine floor play. Cox and Nixon controlled the boards for Galesburg while pouring in 17 points apiece to tie for scoring honors. Otis Cowan and Jimmy Carr combined for a fine defensive game. They held Zang, who has averaged more than fifteen points a game, to only six points. There was no stopping Johnson however, who poured in 24 points for Kewanee.

Sophs Lambast Kewanee Crew

By Dick McGee

The Galesburg High School Ponies raced to their fourth victory in five attempts to the tune of 68 to 43.

Nixon Tallies 23

The young Streaks' offensive surge was led by Lincoln Nixon with 23 followed closely by Bob Coe with 22. Kewanee's high point men were Kenny with 16 and Fulton contributing 10 markers. As a team Galesburg shot a sizzling 51% for the evening.

Start Out With Bang

In the first quarter the Sophs started out with a bang as Gary Bruington hit a couple of quick baskets. But Kewanee fought back taking advantage of our mistakes. Fouls played a big part as the young Boilermakers hit their free throws enabling them to tie the score several times. However, Galesburg had a 18 to 13 advantage at the end of the quarter.

The second stanza saw the Ponies go into a full court press. They stole the ball several times as Kewanee had trouble getting into the front court. Galesburg gradually pulled away and walked off the floor at halftime with a 16 point lead 37 to 21.

In the third period the Ponies scored 20 points while holding Kewanee to only 8. Led by Nixon and Coe they took complete command of the ball game rolling up a 28-point working advantage 57 to 29.

Play Hectic At Finish

In the final frame play was a little hectic but the score still mounted. Coach Houser substituted freely as the boys continued to pour it on to triumph by 25 points.

Cowan and Carr Magicians With A Basketball

Jim Carr and Otis Cowan, names synonymous with flashy, colorful basketball. Both boys, senior guards on the Silver Streak basketball squad, are noted for their outstanding offensive and hard, aggressive defense play. They stand out with the other outstanding guard combinations which have represented GHS in past years.

Different, But Similar

Jimmie and Otie have had different, yet similar basketball careers. Jim came to GHS as one of the foremost ballplayers to come out of the city's junior high schools. He went on to spark an outstanding Sophomore ball club and continued his rise as he started several Varsity ball games in his Junior year. Always an outstanding ballhandler, Jim played an outstanding role in Galesburg's famed ball control game. As of the Rich Township contest this year, Carr, with 99 points, was second to "Bumpy" Nixon in team scoring and second in assists, that is, passes which led directly to a score, with 33.

On the other hand, Otis Cowan had no junior high basketball experience when he came to GHS, concentrating on baseball at Churchill. However, Otis went out for Pony basketball and, after making the squad, moved up in the ranks; finally reaching the starting Varsity five this year. In his Junior year, Cowan was a standout relief artist, coming into many games and displaying tremendous ballhandling ability and spectacular defense. Continuing his outstanding performance this year, Otie leads the Streaks in assists and is averaging slightly more than ten points per game, garnering 81 markers in eight contests.

Outstanding Rebounders

Both boys are outstanding rebounders in spite of a lack of great height. Otie and Jim both excell in baseball and participate in the diamond sport at Galesburg High, Jim a top-notch infielder and Otie roaming the outer gardens.

Scoop's SCOREBOARD

TWO TOUGHIES . . . The Galesburg Silver Streaks will get their big tests of the season tomorrow and Saturday nights. They meet two formidable opponents in the Canton Little Giants and the East Moline Panthers. Canton, who hosts the Streaks on Friday, is paced by 6-5 all-stater Dave Downey. The senior center has scored in the twenties in a majority of the games he has appeared in this campaign, and is regarded as a top-notch basketeer throughout the state. "Bumpy" Nixon, Galesburg's scoring, rebounding, and defensive ace, will have his hands full. Likewise, Mr. Downey may not find the going too easy against Galesburg's classy junior center. This contest looms as a top-notch spectators event and it is my guess that Alice Ingersoll Gym will be filled to the rafters. As far as predicting this important Illinois Conference tussle, the fact that the Little Giants have been especially tough on their own court against the Silver and Gold must be taken into consideration. I will go along with the Silver Streaks by five markers, but will not be too surprised if the Canton crew springs an upset.

The East Moline Panthers, who invade Steele Gym on bath night, field a very potent unit. In recent years, the Panthers of Ernie Kivisto have displayed excellent shooting, ball-handling, and defensive play, but have lacked great height. This year they have excellent height to go along with fine speed and bulls-eye marksmen. Two rough games in a row will leave a definite mark on Coach John Thiel's aggregation, but they should nip the Panthers by ten tallies.

SOPHOMORES MAKE GOOD . . . Two members of Coach Don Houser's sophomore cage squad have been practicing with the varsity quintet. Lincoln Nixon, 6-3, has been working with the varsity throughout the season, while Bob Coe, 6-4½, started about three weeks ago. Both have proven to be excellent shots, along with adept rebounders. Gary Bruington, 5-8, has also been impressive for the sophomores.

MULLENMEN . . . Due to the early writing of this column, the author has been able to view the wrestling team in only one meet. In that match the Streak grapplers handily dumped the Kewanee Boilermakers, 40-10. Although the matmen have suffered early setbacks to Geneseo and Pekin, they should be a potent crew by the time the state tournament rolls around. LaVerne Landon, Mike Reatheford, Bob Mills, Mike Leighton, Charley Duncan, and Fred Durbin have been especially effective in their performances thus far in the campaign.

WELCOME BACK . . . This writer, along with many other ardent GHS fans, was saddened by the news that Jeff Sandburg, stellar Streak performer, had injured his arm on the gridiron, and would have to sit out a good portion of the basketball season. However, it's hard to keep Jeff on the sidelines for very long, and he has been working out on the Steele Gym floor for the last few weeks. He might possibly get back into action by tournament time.

JUNIOR VARSITY . . . The junior varsity crew, under the able guidance of Bob Frank, have been impressive in their basketball outings at this stage of the season. The boys work out nightly and deserve a greater amount of support from the student body. See the next JV game and be treated to some fine basketball.

Galesburg's varsity squad shows their balance, having four players who average scoring in double figures.

Galesburg's margin of victory for the first nine games of the season was a remarkable 20.5.

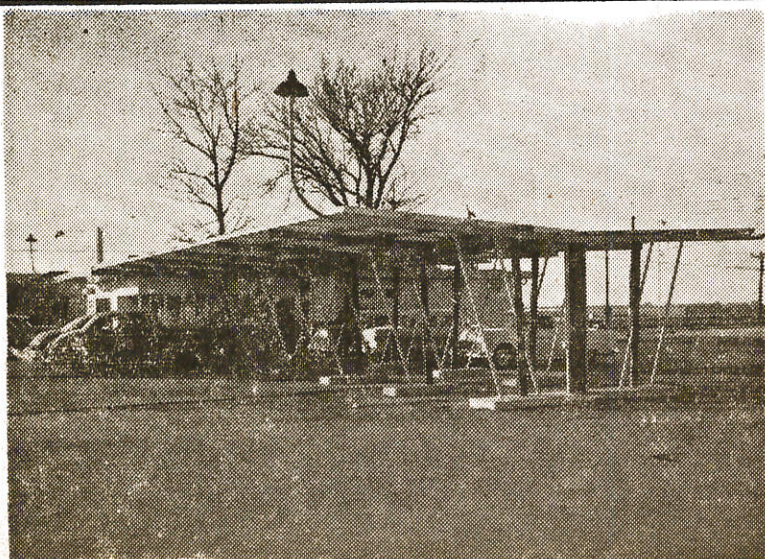

After the Macomb game, the FHA had an after-game dance, as all of you in attendance remember.

Hardwood Activity In GAA Spotlight

The GAA is in full swing now. The bowlers have been playing Wednesday nights after school. The three girls averaging over 125 are Cheryl Sorenson (137), Joan Mills (133), and Sherrill Ortman (126).

GAA basketball teams are being organized. The girls have been practicing and planning their strategies. A round-robin tournament will be held here. The teams with the highest number of points, of course, wins. In March, the state basketball shooting contest will be held. We are sure our representatives will do well.
